

OPEN FOR BUSINESS

BRISBANE

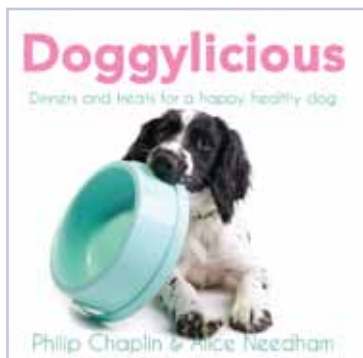

MELBOURNE

THE HOUND HUTT

Brisbane's dogs don't have to home alone anymore. New doggy day care facility, The Hound Hutt, opened late February and caters to smaller breeds and puppies. Services include Doggy Day care, grooming, puppy preschool, a dog boutique and a pick-up and drop off service in their 'Canine Cab'.

Puppies suffering with separation anxiety are catered for with a special puppy area to assist in socialisation and companionship.

Situated at Unit 3, 24 Windorah Street, Stafford, you can drop in or call ahead to check out their facilities. Call Suzi on 0401 338 761 email info@thehoundhutt.com.au or check out their website www.thehoundhutt.com.au

DIAMOND DOG

Melbourne dogs will be begging for the delicious delights that new dog bakery, Diamond Dog Food and Bakery has to offer. Situated in Brighton, the entire range of treats and food is made on the premises. Alice can also cater to special needs diets.

Business has been moving quickly for this Bakery as they've also just released a very good recipe book called Dogglycious that embodies their healthy treat and food philosophy.

330 Bay Street, Brighton Call (03) 9596 8444 or drop on in to meet Alice and the team. Email alice@diamonddog.com.au or check their website www.diamonddog.com.au or if you're in the area, then just pop in with your dog!