TEXTS FROM DOG

October Jones

If only our dogs could text! English animator, Joe Butcher (October Jones) discovered he could send text messages to himself on his mobile phone. Naturally, Butcher decided that the best use for this feature would be to send passive aggressive messages to his fictional alter ego October Jones, under the guise of Cooper, his British Bulldog. After taking screenshots of his canine conversations, Butcher posted them to his 10,000 Twitter followers. The rest is Internet history. Here's over 100 texts not seen on the website. This is a great gift idea for the texting dog lover.
